Leaf Cams now available for viewing at VisitIndiana.com

INDIANAPOLIS — Scenic views from five Indiana locations can be seen online at VisitIndiana.com through a special Leaf Cam promotion from the Indiana Office of Tourism Development. Until Nov. 13, visitors can click on a special Leaf Cam section of VisitIndiana.com to watch current images of the leaves at each location.

The five Leaf Cam locations for 2009 are: The Fort Golf Course at Fort Harrison State Park in Indianapolis; French Lick Resort in French Lick; Corydon Capitol State Historic Site in Corydon; Hilltop Cabins in Brown County; and Spring Mill State Park in Mitchell.

“Go online and see the beauty of fall in Indiana, but don’t stop there,” said Lt. Governor Becky Skillman. “You haven’t seen anything until you tour the state and experience it up close.”

In addition to viewing the Leaf Cams, visitors to the Leaf Cam section of VisitIndiana.com can sign up for a chance to win a getaway to one of the Leaf Cam locations. Visitors are also encouraged to upload their best fall photos of Indiana to Visit Indiana’s Flickr photo-sharing site.

VisitIndiana.com is the official travel resource for planning a vacation or getaway in Indiana. The Web site’s homepage makes it easy to find travel discounts and coupons, find festivals and events, and get trip ideas from the Indiana Insider blog. Visit Indiana information is also available via Twitter and Facebook.

Lt. Gov. Becky Skillman oversees the Indiana Office of Tourism Development. Amy Vaughan serves as the agency’s Director.
